OUR HISTORICAL NEIGHBOURS

Stop in at the Sunderland Museum during the fair and find the location of your property on a variety of maps dating back to 1818. The database here helps to link the families who were the early settlers of Brock Township so you may find your family tree. For your viewing there are artifacts from the Battle of Waterloo, pioneer tools and clothing, and a large selection of items connected to the schools, sports teams and businesses that have been collected since Jones Corners became Sunderland about 1871.
